AUCTION SALE

OFFICE OF

Geoffrey Charlton Adams

NUMISMATIST

NEW YORK, U. S. A.

DEAR SIR:—The Sale this month is composed of various consignments, and like the other Sales that we have held, the diversity will readily be appreciated by a perusal of this Catalogue. If a collector is specially interested in the silver coinage of Europe he will find something nice to tickle his palate; and while these particular coins are not numerous, yet they are all in very nice condition, and in some cases of more or less rarity. If it is the coinage of this Country that appeals to you, there will be found a very nice selection, and some pieces of rather scarce character. Also the omnivorous man, the man that collects coins of every clime, will find that his wants have not been neglected, and that probably some specimens will, after the Sale, rest in his cabinet. Then those that collect autographs and curios of one kind or another will find, towards the end of the Catalogue, that we have been mindful of them, and have taken some pains to secure all the data that will assist them to bid understandingly and successfully. The Sale that has just passed was remarkable for the prices realized as well as for the celerity with which it was conducted. Just think of it, all ye people that have frequently lost your dinners by the long-drawn-out Sales that have sometimes been conducted in the past, we sold 800 lots in precisely one hour and forty-five minutes, the quickest Auction Sale, considering the number of lots, ever held in America, and yet there was no hurry or confusion, and everybody had a chance to bid if he was so inclined. It is true that we had no historical discussions, or personal reminiscences; we attended strictly to the business at hand, and left biographical remarks to be made to after, not during, the Sale.

We shall endeavor to conduct all our Sales upon these lines, so that it will be a pleasure to attend, and will endeavor to see to it, that while you may go away lighter in pockets, yet you will not be tired, and will welcome us the next time we send you a Catalogue.

Very truly yours,

GEOFFREY CHARLTON ADAMS.

AN UNPUBLISHED CANADIAN.

432 Obv. Steamboat "Lauzon, 1821." R. "Bon pour huit soes, Four Pence," surcharged "J. T." pewter, fine, excessively rare. Breton. 560

(This entirely new and probably unique variety of this excessively rare coin has been in the possession of the Thomson family of Quebec, Can., for past 80 years, and has a most interesting history. At the time the Lauzon Ferry was operated by J. McKenzie, Sir A. Caldwell was the Seigneur of Lauzon. Mr. John Thomson, who was his factor, was engaged in the lumber business at Lauzon, or, as it is known now, Levis, and these coins were surcharged to be used by him while in the service of the Seigneur. just as those that were used by McKenzie bear his counterstamp. This coin, the only one that was preserved by the Thomson family, is now offered for the first time, and we trust that this link between Old and New Quebec will be appreciated by our Canadian friends; and having at last, after so many years, seen the light of day, it will take its place among the rarest of Canadian coins. It will be noticed that the regular type of Lauzon Token has an Auction record of $25 in America, and we believe has sold for a much higher price abroad.)
